PETERBOROUGH RESIDENT SCORES A GIG IN WASHINGTON, DC

American film composer David Kowal combines a mastery of the piano with professional, real-world arranging and orchestration skills to create film music and television music. He has been featured in hundreds of TV shows, listed in the "Who's Who" in the Hollywood Reporter and in contemporary film composer lists.

Poetry & Music at the Arts Club of Washington
"IT WAS ALWAYS"

Join us for a symphony of spoken word featuring the poetry of award-winning journalist and Rose Theatre Poet Laureate Tom Squitieri, including performances by musician and composer David Kowal, acclaimed vocal artist Christopher Lane and Helen Hayes award-winning actor Rick Foucheux.

The evening will also feature the debut of poems submitted by artists from Washington, D.C. and around the globe in celebration of National Poetry Month.

"It Was Always" is presented by The Rose Theatre Co. in partnership with FABUM and the Drama Committee of the Arts Club of Washington
